

118 Kentucky Ave., SE • Washington, DC 20003 • (202) 546-5898 • www.dcaccess.net

---

To Whom It May Concern:

As an urban Wireless Internet Service Provider, I would urge the FCC to allow unlicensed devices to operate in the unused broadcast television spectrum. The Commission should not allow this spectrum to be licensed – the public interest would be better served in the unlicensed spectrum as the costs of broadband service will be decreased with the spurred competition.

DC Access, LLC fully support the comments filed by Marlon Schafer for WISPA on Tuesday February 20th.

Thank you

Martha Huizenga
Partner
DC Access, LLC

---

---